

Where's my Pinsky report?
And what the hell is all that background noise? Are your kids at home with you again?

Yeah, another “kids work from home day” due to school teacher shortages.
I gotta put up with running and screaming kids today at home, ‘cos the wife doesn't want them on devices.

FFS, if there weren't so many people taking sick days from this workplace, I would actually give a shit.
