

Did you hear they have 400 million dollars worth of RAT tests just sitting there in storage? I mean, I could be seriously trading with that kind of money!

Yeah, and they bought 18 million doses of the Pfizer vaccine. For a team of 5 million, the numbers just don't add up. The shitty thing is, it didn't even work. I still got covid! Twice!

I'll call you back, I just gotta check my refrigeration and power company stocks!
