

The contract to supply 18 million doses of the Pfizer vaccine remains secret and “commercially sensitive”. Even the warranties, limitations, commercially reasonable efforts and 3rd party details remain secret according to several requests under the Official Information Act 1982.

I got a contract, and I won't tell you. I got a contract and it's a doozie. It's for a tonne of money, honey...honey money!

What? Is that why you are donating like $18k a fortnight to the Labour Party?

Oh no, that's Cindy. She's a fucking doll of a donator. We would be nothing without her pretty face.
